PREBLE COUNTY, OHIO MARRIAGES

1899 - 1906

Information taken from court house records.

There are some names incorrectly spelled but no change was made from the record.

Preble County, Ohio has never had a hosptial, so it is possible that some of those born in Richmond, Indiana, Dayton, Ohio, Greenville, Ohio or Hamilton, Ohio, for instance, may have actually been Preble County natives.

Preble County, Ohio had a waiting period before a license was issued after application. Also the age requirement was 21. Some couples would go either to Indiana or Kentucky to be married to circumvent these requirements.

In Ohio, the license had to be obtained in the county where the woman lived.
